The Honorable Edward Kennedy
Chairman, Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Chairman Kennedy:

On behalf of the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP), I am writing to express our strong support for the Local Law Enforcement Hate Crimes Prevention Act. The legislation, which passed the House of Representatives in May, will allow the federal government to provide technical support to state and local law enforcement agencies that are investigating hate crimes. In addition, the legislation authorizes the Department of Justice to provide grants to state and local law enforcement agencies to cover the costs of investigating and prosecuting hate crimes.

Most hate crimes are, and should continue to be, investigated and prosecuted by state, tribal, and local authorities. Unfortunately, there are instances, where as a result of either insufficient resources or a lack of jurisdiction, state, tribal and local authorities are unable to properly investigate these crimes. In response, the legislation provides the Department of Justice (DOJ) with jurisdiction in crimes of violence which were motivated because of an individual's race, color, religion, national origin, disability, gender, gender identity or sexual orientation.

However, the legislation properly bars the exercise of federal jurisdiction until the DOJ certifies that state authorities have requested that the federal government assume jurisdiction or that they have consulted with state, tribal and local law enforcement and have determined that local authorities are either unwilling or unable to act.

Senate passage of the Local Law Enforcement Hate Crimes Prevention Act will greatly assist state, tribal and local law enforcement agencies in investigating and prosecuting hate crimes. Thank you for your continued leadership and attention to this vital issue.

The IACP stands ready to assist in any way possible.

Sincerely,

Joseph C. Carter
President
